The term "owner" applies to the owner doing electrical work on his own property or residence provided that said property or residence is maintained for his own use. The property or residence shall be intended for the owner's personal use and not built on speculation of resale or intended as rental property. On farm and ranch installations used in conjunction with an agricultural or livestock raising operation, the term "owner" applies to the owner, owner's agent and/or person(s) employed by the owner on a full time basis as a farm or ranch employee at the farm of ranch involved.
